Dear Sir,

APPLICATION FOR RESIDENCE,

We are writing with regard to your application for residence which was accepted for consideration on 12 February, 1999.

We are pleased to inform you that your application for residence under the General Skills category has been approved in principle.

Upon production of evidence that you have met the requirements listed below, you will be issued with a residence permit. These requirements are:

You must pay a Settlement Information fee of NZ$90.

You must pay a Migrant Levy of - $220

It would be helpful if you could provide this information as soon as possible to allow for your residence permit to be issued as quickly as possible. Please forward your valid passport or travel document along with the documentation requested above.

Please note that it is important to you to meet these requirements by 17 February 2000. If the requirements are not met within this time, the New Zealand Immigration Service may decline your application. Please contact this office if you have good reason for not being able to meet all requirements within this time.

You should refer to your nearest office of the New Zealand Immigration Service for further details, information about specific requirements and time frames for meeting these requirements.

Please find enclosed, your previously submitted documents (listed below) which are now returned to you:
